

Workshop on the Political Economy of Migration

ENS de Lyon, September 19 & 20

This workshop is part of the EcoNomicSday workshop series at ENS. It aims to advance front-line research by bringing together experts in political economy and immigration to present and discuss the latest findings. This session is jointly organized with the Dynamics department at the IC Migrations.

Thursday 19

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 14h00-14h40 | Mickael Melki (Paris School of Business): Cultural Remittances and Modern Fertility (with H. Rapoport, E. Spolaore, and R. Wacziarg). |
| 14h40-15h20 | Yajna Govind (Copenhagen Business School): Migration Policy Backlash, Identity and Integration of Second-Generation Migrants in France (with T. Baudin, and S. Moriconi). |
| 15h20-16h00 | Coffee break |
| 16h00-16h40 | Francesco Fasani (University of Milan): A More Conservative Country? Asylum Seekers and Voting in the UK (with S. Ferro, A. Romarri, and E. Pasini). |
| 16h40-17h20 | Mathilde Emeriau (Sciences Po): In or Out? Xenophobic Violence and Immigrant Integration. Evidence from 19th Century France (with S. Wolton). |

19h00 Diner at “Le Bistrot Gerland”, 83 rue de Gerland (by invitation only).

Friday 20

9h00-9h40 Sarah Schneider-Strawczynski (Exeter University): Political Representation and Integration: An example from the UK (with A. Bhatiya and H. Rapoport).

9h40-10h20 Riccardo Turati (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona): Digging Up Trenches: Populism, Selective Mobility, and the Political Polarization of Italian Municipalities (with L. Bellodi, F. Docquier, S. Iandolo, and M. Morelli).

10h20-11h00 Coffee break

11h00-11h40 Margherita Negri (University of St Andrews): The Political Economy of Open vs Closed Borders: Theory and Evidence on the Role of Electoral Rules (with M. Morelli and M. Gamalerio).

11h40-12h20 Cevat Aksoy (EBRD): Hometown Conflict and Refugees' Integration Efforts (with G. Khanna, V. Marino and S. Tumen).